Trailer Show to Feature Variety

Trailers to meet every price range, from 15 foot campers to huge mobile homes 55 feet long and 10 feet wide, will be unveiled January 30th through February 2nd at the 1958 Trailer Life Show.

Scene of this fifth annual... and biggest... show will be Great Western Exhibit Area, Santa Ana Freeway at Atlantic Boulevard, Los Angeles, which was recently expanded to 120,000 square feet.

Over 140 mobile homes, travel trailers and campers, in every type of floor plan, styling and construction, will be on hand for the delectation of trailer enthusiasts.

NEW SQUARE DANCE CLASS WILL FORM

A new square dance class for beginners starts Tuesday at the Gardena Barn, 15016 Daphne, Barney Finrock, instructor and caller, announced today.

Registration for the 16 week course in the fundamentals of square dancing will remain open through March 4.

Class meetings will be held at the Barn each Tuesday night except the second Tuesday of the month beginning at 7:30.

"This course is open to all adults. Square dancing is easy, its fun and its friendly," Finrock stated.

The class is sponsored by the Traveling Yards Birds square dance club of Lawndale, which is affiliated with the Associated Square Dancers.

CO-COUNCIL POSTPONES DA SPEECH

The Torrance Coordinating Council meeting scheduled for February 5 has been cancelled, according to President, Dr. Warren Low.

Low said the cancellation was necessary because of conflict of dates.

Los Angeles District Attorney, Judge William McKesson, was scheduled as the speaker of the meeting which was called to discuss the problems of youth.

Chairman Louise Magnan stated that the affair would be re-scheduled in the near future.

Draftsman Given Service Award

Donald W. Pierce, 16814 Kristin Avenue, Torrance, marks 25 years of service with General Petroleum Corporation this month.

An alumnus of Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Pierce is senior draftsman for the manufacturing department at the Torrance refinery.

He will receive the commendation of the board of directors of General Petroleum and a diamond lapel emblem.

Torrance Residents Die In Accidents

A Torrance couple was killed on a rural road near Turlock, and another resident lost her life in an auto accident in Los Angeles late last week.

Fred Samuel Johnson, 65, and his wife, Beulah, 64, of 17404 Faysmith Avenue, died when their car collided with a truck near Turlock, California Highway Patrol reported.

Mrs. Cecelia P. Lechuga, 20, of 20817 Jamison Avenue, was reported dead on arrival at Harbor General Hospital, as result of a collision with a truck at 208th and Main Streets, Los Angeles, police reported.

The Chapter represents Mount Sinai in Redondo, Hermosa, Manhattan, Palos Verdes, Torrance, El Segundo and Westchester areas.

Leon Clarke Entertains Cub Scouts

Cub Scout Pack No. 775C of Hollywood Riviera had its monthly meeting at the Riviera Elementary School Monday evening. Entertainment was provided by W. E. Jackson, the Pack Awards Chairman. Jackson arranged for Leon Clarke, outstanding end and star player for the Los Angeles Rams, to be present and deliver a short talk on scouting, followed by the showing of scenes from past Ram games.

CONFERENCE DRAWS ECC INSTRUCTORS

Six representatives from El Camino College will participate in the annual Midyear Conference on Good Teaching tomorrow and Saturday on the campus of the University of Southern California.

The six will be Miss Marvel Doyle and Mrs. Marie Mitwer, English instructors; Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction; Willis Weber, assistant director of instruction; Richard T. Haley, mathematics instructor, and Dr. Jack Martin, business instructor.

The theme of the handicraft work for January was "Movie Making" and resulted in the individual Dens displaying their efforts at the meeting for judging. Den No. 2, Mrs. Talley, Den Mother, won the handicraft award with handmade model camera - projectors constructed from cardboard shoe boxes.

Den No. 4, Mrs. Rachel Daub, Den Mother, again won the attendance award for having the best showings of Cubs, parents and/or families. Den No. 8, Mrs. Joseph Manning, Den Mother, won the inspection and best-conduct award for their performance throughout the meeting.

The next Pack meeting is scheduled for February 17 and will be the traditional Blue-Gold dinner or annual celebration of Scout Week.
